II. Marriage. The record of marriage shall state its date and place of occurrence, the name, residence and official character of the person by whom solemnized, the full Christian and surnames of the parties, the age, color, occupation, residence, condition, whether single or widowed and whether first or other marriage of each party, and the full Christian and surnames, residence, color, occupation, and birthplace of their parents.

2. Seal of Registrar. The registrar of vital statistics shall have a seal, which shall be like the seal of the state except that the device thereon shall be surrounded by the words "The State of New Hampshire, Department of Vital Statistics" in the place of the words "Seal of the State of New Hampshire, 1776."

3. Authenticated Copies. Every certificate or other official paper executed by the registrar under seal, in pursuance of authority conferred by law, shall be received as evidence, and may be recorded in the proper recording offices in the same manner and with like effect as a legally acknowledged deed; and copies of papers and records in his office, so authenticated, shall be received as evidence with the same effect as the originals.

4. Report of Birth. The attending physician, midwife or other person in charge, who shall attend, assist or advise at the birth of any child, living or still-born, within the state, shall report to the clerk of the town within six days thereafter all the facts required by paragraph I of section 1. In case the parents of the child reside in some other town than the place of birth, the clerk of the town within which the birth takes place shall thereupon send a copy of the birth record to the clerk of the town within which the parents reside, where the same shall be recorded; but only the clerk of the town of actual birth shall be required to transmit a copy to the state registrar.

5. Report of Marriage. Every person who solemnizes a marriage shall make a record of it and of all the facts required by paragraph II, section 1, and, within six days thereafter, shall forward to the clerk of the town in which the marriage intention was recorded a copy of such record.

6. Town Record, etc. The clerk of every town shall keep a chronological record of all births, marriages and deaths reported to him, and shall, between the sixth and twelfth days of each month, transmit a copy of such record for the preceding month, or for any previous month not before reported, to the state registrar. He shall also transmit the names, residences and official stations of all persons who have neglected to make to him the returns required by law relating to the subject-matter of such records.

7. Marriage of Nonresident. Whenever there is filed with a town clerk a certificate of the marriage of any person not a resident of the town where such marriage is solemnized he shall, within ten days after such filing, forward an attested copy of such certificate to the clerk of the town where each nonresident so married resides, as shown by the certificate, whether in this or another state.

8. Notice to Parents, etc. Town clerks shall, within thirty days after receiving the report of a birth, send a copy of the record to the parents, and state that the birth has been duly recorded on the town books, and, if the name of the child is not given, it shall be the duty of the clerk to obtain it and complete the record.

9. Preservation of Returns. The state registrar shall cause the returns made to him in pursuance of the preceding sections, together with the returns of divorces made by the clerks of court, to be arranged, alphabetic indexes of all the names contained therein to be made, and the whole to be bound in convenient volumes and preserved in his office. He shall include a general abstract thereof in his annual report.

10. Record, Evidence. The town clerk's record of a birth, marriage or death, or a duly certified copy thereof, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact, in any judicial proceeding.

11. Fees. The town shall pay the following fees for services required by this chapter: To a person who makes return of a birth, marriage, or death, twenty-five cents; to the town clerk for receiving, recording, and returning the facts, fifty cents.

12. Payment by County. The physicians' fees for the return of all births and deaths occurring at county farms, almshouses, jails and other county institutions, and the town clerks' fees for recording the same, shall be paid by the county in which said births or deaths occur, at the same rates; and the treasurer of any county shall, upon the presentation of the bill for such services of any town clerk within his county, duly approved by the county commissioners, draw his warrant for the same.

13. Institutional Records. The record of all births and deaths occurring at such institutions shall be kept in separate books suitable for this purpose by the clerk of the town in which such institution may be located, and such records shall be kept separate from all other records.

14. Unreported Facts. The clerk of each town shall be paid fifty cents for obtaining, recording and returning the facts relating to each birth, marriage, or death, which has not been officially reported to him; and a like sum for obtaining and properly inserting in the records and returns the name of any child which may have been omitted from the official return of a birth made to such town.

15. Vouchers. The clerk shall append to his vouchers, for fees due him for said service, a list of the names obtained by him under the provisions of the preceding section.

16. Penalties. Any person who wilfully makes or alters any vital statistics record, or certified copy thereof, except as provided in this chapter, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than six months, or both. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter, or of any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder, or who neglects or refuses to perform a duty imposed upon him by the provisions hereof, shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars for each offense, for the use of the town in which the offense was committed, and it shall be the duty of the registrar of vital statistics to enforce this section.

17. Rules and Regulations. The registrar of vital statistics is authorized and empowered to make rules and regulations to secure uniformity and efficiency in the preparation, transcription, collection, compilation and preservation of facts in relation to births, marriages and deaths. Said rules and regulations also may include provisions for so-called delayed certificates of birth, the registration of children of unknown parentage, the filing of additional certificates after the legitimation of children and other matters relative to vital statistics. Such rules and regulations shall be given such publicity as said registrar may deem necessary and shall be binding upon the town clerks charged with duties under the provisions of this chapter.

(1943, c. 194, s. 1.)

18. Certified Copies. A town clerk or the registrar of vital statistics shall issue to any applicant a certified copy of any record in his office relative to births, marriages and deaths or any part thereof, or verification thereof.
(1943, c. 194, s. 1.)

If there be no such clerk in the place of their residence the like entry shall be made with the clerk of an adjoining town. The clerk shall record the notice in a book to be kept for that purpose.

23. Blood Test Required. No application for a marriage license shall be accepted by any town clerk until there shall be in his possession a statement signed by a licensed physician that each applicant has submitted to a Wassermann or Kahn or other similar standard laboratory blood test and that, in the opinion of such physician, the person is not infected with syphilis or in a stage that may become communicable. Such statements shall be accompanied by a record of the standard laboratory blood tests made, and this record shall contain the exact name of such applicant. The standard laboratory blood test shall be performed by the state board of health on request of a licensed physician, or at a laboratory approved by said board. Such test shall be made not more than thirty days before the issuance of the marriage license.

24. Penalty. Any person violating the provisions of section 23 shall forfeit sixty dollars for each such offense.

25. Confidential Report, Optional Destruction. The statement and record required by section 23 shall be treated as a confidential report and shall not be considered as part of the marriage record. Said certificate shall be valid only for a period of ninety days from the date of issue.

27. Shortening Period; Blood Test Waived. On application to a justice of the superior court, or judge of probate within the county where the proposed marriage is to be solemnized, the court for good cause shown may order that the period of five days provided in the preceding section be shortened, as in the order provided, and for like cause may waive the provisions of section 23.

28. Procedure. The procedure upon such application shall be as provided in section 7.

Solemnization of Marriage

31. Who may Solemnize. Marriage may be solemnized by a justice of the peace as commissioned in the state; by any minister of the gospel in the state who has been ordained according to the usage of his denomination, resides in the state, and is in regular standing with the denomination; and, within his parish, by any minister residing out of the state, but having a pastoral charge wholly or partly in this state.

The names and residences of the couple proposed to be married in such special case shall be stated in the license, and no power shall be conferred to marry any other parties than those named therein. The fee for such license shall be five dollars. The secretary of state shall keep a permanent record of all such special licenses, which record shall contain the names and residences of the couple to be married and the name and residence of the minister to whom the license is issued.

33. Fee. The persons joined in marriage by a minister or justice shall pay the minister or justice one dollar.

35. Unauthorized Person. If a person not authorized by this chapter to solemnize marriages shall join any persons in marriage, with or without a certificate, he shall be fined not more than three hundred dollars.

36. Effect of Informality. No marriage solemnized before a person professing to be a justice of the peace or minister of the gospel shall be void, nor shall its validity be affected on account of want of jurisdiction or authority in such supposed justice or minister, or on account of any omission or informality in the certificate of intention of marriage, if the marriage is in other respects lawful and has been consummated with the belief on the part of either of the parties thereto that they were lawfully married.

37. Exceptions. Nothing contained in this chapter shall affect the right of Jewish Rabbis who are citizens of the United States, residing in this state, or of the people called Friends or Quakers, to solemnize marriages in the way usually practiced among them, and all marriages so solemnized shall be valid. and reputation is competent proof of marriage.

41. Criminal Cases. In actions for criminal conversation, and in indictments for adultery, bigamy, and the like, there must be proof of a marriage in fact.

Legitimation of Children

42. Where the parents of children born before marriage afterwards intermarry, and recognize such children as their own, such children shall be legitimate and shall inherit equally with their other children under the statute of distribution.

REVISED LAWS, CHAPTER 339

DIVORCE AND SEPARATION

Void Marriages

1. Without Decree. All marriages prohibited by law on account of the consanguinity or affinity of the parties, or where either has a former wife or husband living, knowing such wife or husband to be alive, if solemnized in this state, shall be absolutely void without any legal process.

2. Libels. If any doubt exists whether any marriage is void, or as to the effect of any former decree of divorce or nullity between the parties, a libel may be filed as in other cases, and a decree of divorce or nullity may be made.

2-a. Jurisdiction. In any proceedings for annulment for any cause whether under statute or under common law, the court shall have jurisdiction to declare an annulment of a marriage entered into in this state even though neither party has been at any time a resident herein. (1945, c. 12, s. 1.)

Jurisdiction to Grant Divorce

3. Limitation. The jurisdiction of the court to grant divorce is limited to cases where there is jurisdiction over the parties and of the alleged cause as defined in the two succeeding sections.

4. Parties. Jurisdiction of the parties exists in the following cases only:

I. Where both parties were domiciled in the state when the action was commenced.

II. Where the plaintiff was so domiciled and the defendant was personally served with process within the state.

III. Where the plaintiff was domiciled in the state for one year next preceding the time when the action was commenced.

IV. Where the domiciled plaintiff has filed a libel the non-domiciled defendant may have affirmative relief upon filing a cross libel.

5. Cause. Jurisdiction of the cause for divorce exists when it wholly arose or accrued while the plaintiff was domiciled in the state, and not otherwise.

Causes for Divorce

6. Absolute Divorce. A divorce from bonds of matrimony shall be decreed in favor of the innocent party for either of the following causes:

I. Impotency of either party.

II. Adultery of either party.

III. Extreme cruelty of either party to the other.

IV. Conviction of either party, in any state or federal district, of a crime punishable with imprisonment for more than one year and actual imprisonment under such conviction.

V. When either party has so treated the other as seriously to injure health or endanger reason.

VI. When either party has been absent three years together, and has not been heard of.

VII. When either party is an habitual drunkard, and has been such for three years together.

VIII. When either party has joined any religious sect or society which professes to believe the relation of husband and wife unlawful, and has refused to cohabit with the other for six months together.

IX. When either party, without sufficient cause, and without the consent of the other, has abandoned and refused, for three years together, to cohabit with the other.

X. When the husband has willingly absented himself from the wife for three years together, without making suitable provision for her support and maintenance.

XI. When the wife of any citizen has willingly absented herself from her husband, without his consent, for three years together.

XII. When the wife of any citizen has gone to reside beyond the limits of this state, and has remained absent and separate from her husband ten years together, without his consent and without returning to claim her marriage rights.

XIII. When the wife of any alien or citizen of another state, living separate, has resided in this state for three years together, her husband having left the United States with the intention of becoming a citizen of some foreign country, and not having during that period come into this state and claimed his marital rights, and not having made suitable provision for his wife's support and maintenance.

7. Existence at Filing. No divorce shall be granted for any cause except adultery, unless the cause shall be in existence at the time of filing of the petition therefor.

Procedure

8. Venue; Notice. All libels for divorce shall be brought in the county in which the parties, or one of them, live, and before the superior court; and the notice of the pendency thereof shall be given to the libelee, personal or otherwise, as the court shall order.

9. Libels. Every libel shall state the cause or causes of divorce, and shall be signed by the libelant, if of sound mind and of the age of legal consent; otherwise by the parent, guardian or next friend of the libelant.

10. Insanity of Libelee. If the libelee is insane the court may appoint a guardian to appear and answer for the libelee, as is done for an infant defendant at common law.

11. Evidence of Marriage. Upon a hearing for divorce, the admission of the marriage by the party against whom the process is instituted, general repute, the fact of cohabitation, or any other circumstantial or presumptive evidence from which the marriage may be inferred, shall be competent evidence for the consideration of the court.

12. Revision of Orders, etc. The court, upon proper application and notice to the adverse party, may revise and modify any order made by it, may make such new orders as may be necessary, and may award costs as justice may require.

13. Clerks' Returns. The clerks of the superior court shall, at the close of each term in their respective counties at which divorces are granted, make return to the registrar of vital statistics of the number of divorces decreed at that term, the causes thereof, the sex of the libelant, and the date of the decree.

Alimony, Allowances, Custody, Etc.

14. Temporary Orders. After the filing of a libel for divorce the superior court, or any justice thereof, may, on petition of the wife, prohibit the husband from imposing any restraint upon her personal liberty, or from entering the tenement where she resides during the pendency of the libel, and, during such pendency, may order a temporary allowance to be paid to the wife by the husband for her support, and, on the petition of either party, may make such order respecting the custody and maintenance of the minor children of the parties as shall be deemed expedient and for the benefit of the children.

15. Support of Children. In all cases where there shall be a decree of divorce or nullity, the court shall make such further decree in relation to the support, education, and custody of the children as shall be most conducive to their benefit, and may order a reasonable provision for their support and education.

16. Alimony. Upon a decree of nullity or divorce, the court may restore to the wife all or any part of her estate, and may assign to her such part of the estate of her husband, or order him to pay such sum of money, as may be deemed just, provided that in cases in which no children are involved, or in which the children have reached the age of majority, said order shall be effective for not more than three years from the date thereof, but such order may be renewed, modified or extended if justice requires for periods of not more than three years at a time; and may compel the husband to disclose, under oath, the situation of his property; and before or after the decree, may make such orders and use such process as may be necessary.

17. Trusteeship. In a case arising under the two preceding sections the court may order the property to be conveyed or the money to be paid to a trustee, to invest and to apply the income thereof to the support of the wife or the maintenance and education of the minor children, and to pay over the principal sum, or any part thereof, as the court may from time to time order.

18. Security. In all cases where alimony or an allowance shall be decreed for the wife or children the court may require security to be given for the payment thereof.

19. Allowance for Husband. Upon a decree of nullity or divorce, the court may decree that the husband shall have a part of the estate of the wife in the nature of alimony, as justice may require

20. Legitimacy. No decree of divorce shall affect the legitimacy of a child born or begotten in lawful matrimony, unless it shall be so expressed in the decree, and children born of a marriage entered into in good faith by the parties thereto shall be regarded as legitimate children and their legitimacy shall not be affected by a decree of nullity, unless it shall be so expressed in the decree.

Change of Name

21. Decree. In proceedings for divorce, when the libelant shall have asked in the libel to have her name changed, the court may, when a divorce is decreed, decree the change of her name to that which she bore before her last marriage.

22. Return of List. The clerk of the superior court for each county shall, at the end of each term of court, transmit to the register of probate a full and correct list of all changes of names that have been decreed hereunder.

23. Publication. The register of probate shall return said list to the secretary of state, who shall cause it to be published as the lists of names changed by the judges of probate are, except that the names shall be designated when published as names changed by the superior court in divorce proceedings.

Limited Divorces

24. Legal Separation. In any case in which a divorce might be decreed the superior court, on petition of the party who would be entitled to a divorce, may decree a legal separation of the parties, which separation shall have in all respects the effect of a divorce, except that the parties shall not thereby be made free to marry any third person, and except as hereinafter provided.

25. Procedure, etc. Upon such petition the procedure shall be the same as upon libels for divorce, and the court shall have the same power in all matters relating to restraining orders and decrees, allowances, alimony, custody of children and division or apportionment of the property of the parties, as in cases of divorce. The name of the wife shall not be changed.

26. Resumption of Relations. The parties to such a petition may at any time resume marital relations, upon filing with the clerk of the superior court for the county in which the separation was decreed their written declaration of such resumption, signed, acknowledged and witnessed. Such declaration shall be entered upon the docket, under the entries relating to such petition.

27. Effect of Resumption. Such resumption of marital relations shall terminate and annul all restraining orders, and all decrees relating to alimony or the custody of children, but shall not affect any decree relating to the division or apportionment of property.

28. Returns. The clerk of the superior court shall make return of all such decrees of separation and declarations of the resumption of marital relations to the registrar of vital statistics in the manner provided for the return of divorces.
